BOSESIS

With our feet firmly planted in Africa, we set our sights on the world.

Lardiere Fine Foods proudly introduces Bosesi, meaning sisters in Setswana.

Bosesi brings international guests a taste of local flavours like Buchu, Chakalaka and Rooibos. The Bosesi brand walks the road of women empowerment, aiming to give means to the working hands behind the products by giving the sisters a shared interest in the business.
